Cookie statement

This cookie statement comes into effect from December 2023.

Cookie statement

This website uses cookies to enhance your browsing experience and to analyse our website traffic. By continuing to browse or by clicking "Accept," you agree to the use of cookies on this site.

What are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer or mobile device when you visit a website. They are widely used to make websites work more efficiently and provide valuable information to website owners. Cookies can be used for various purposes, such as improving website functionality, analysing how the site is used, and providing personalized content and advertising.

How We Use Cookies

We use cookies for the following purposes:

- Essential Cookies These cookies are necessary for the website to function properly. They enable you to navigate our site and use its features.
- Analytics Cookies We use these cookies to analyse how users interact with our website. This information helps us improve our website's performance and content.
- Marketing Cookies We may use these cookies to display relevant advertisements and promotional content based on your interests.

Managing Cookies

You can control and manage cookies in your browser settings. You can choose to block or delete cookies, but please be aware that some parts of our website may not function correctly if you do so. For more information on how to manage cookies in your browser, please refer to your browser's help documentation.

Changes to this Cookie Statement

We may update our Cookie Statement from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or for other operational, legal, or regulatory reasons. Please revisit this page regularly to stay informed about our use of cookies and related technologies.

Contact Us

If you have any questions or concerns about our use of cookies or this Cookie statement, please contact us via info@getbeyondit.eu.
